

When you complete a GSA MAS proposal, you are creating a foundation of information that you can use moving forward.

There will be additional proposals to answer RFQs and RFIs if you win a GSA proposal. You will need to create those proposals throughout the life of your GSA MAS contract. You will need to use GSA's systems to keep your contract current. To be effective, you will need your information library. Now is the best time to start it!

Create a Knowledge
Foundation